March 2, 2007

It is my privilege to write this letter of recommendation for Jeff Little. Jeff has served with me as part of our pastoral team at Grace Assembly of God in Greenwood/New Whiteland, Indiana since January of 1999. During that time, Jeff's gifts and ministry success grew dramatically, along with our church as he led our youth ministry and then our college age ministry. I have known Jeff and Heather personally for more than 15 years. He is a personal friend.

Jeff is a seasoned minister with much wisdom and insight into God's Word. For the majority of the time here Jeff's responsibility was youth ministry. I don't know of any other youth communicator who was more effective in reaching students. He used video, props, drama or whatever was necessary to powerfully present the truths of God's Word. Teens always responded dramatically. Jeff is also very gifted in communicating to adults. His messages and speaking ability are full of revelation and anointing from God and he is always a favorite speaker in our church.

I have found Jeff to be able to meet any need that is put before him with excellent results. Whether it is ministering to teens or adults, college age students or even children, he has a unique gift to teach and preach God's Word with great wisdom and power. Jeff is a man of integrity and prayer. He loves the Word of God and prays passionately. You can see the effect of these disciplines in all areas of his ministry.

I would recommend him for any type of ministry you may need. You will not regret inviting Jeff to minister. People like Jeff are very rare in the days we live in. His ministry is one you want to take advantage of.

I would love to speak to you concerning any of these matters personally. Do not hesitate to contact me at any time via phone (317-535-5640) or via email (pastorwayne@grace-assembly.org).

Sincerely,

Wayne Murray
Senior Pastor
